

Commercial & Corporate Finance

Burr & Forman represents commercial banks, funds, financial institutions, and other capital providers, as well as borrowers and other capital users, in all aspects of commercial and corporate finance, both in the large corporate and middle markets. The team at Burr combines the strength of its entire footprint as well as the experience of attorneys in a variety of industries.

Our attorneys assist clients in a number of finance areas, including:

Accounts Receivable & Inventory Finance

Burr represents agents, lenders, and borrowers in closings, administration, workouts, loan sales and purchases, secured party sales, and collections with respect to loans secured by accounts receivable and inventory, both in large corporate and middle market commercial loan and asset-based loan environments. Our team also represents factors and their clients in traditional factoring arrangements, as well as more structured, off-balance-sheet financings, for companies and financial institutions.

Agricultural Finance

Burr represents agents, lenders, and borrowers in closings, administration, workouts, loan sales and purchases, secured party sales, and collections with respect to loans in the agricultural industry secured by crops, livestock, timber, and other goods used in farming operations.

Equipment Finance (Including Aircraft, Maritime and Rolling Stock Finance)

Burr represents agents, lenders, and borrowers in equipment finance closings, administration, workouts, loan sales and purchases, secured party sales, and collections with respect to
