

Kevin (Kyubin) Han

Associate

Atlanta, GA

(404) 685-4277

khan@burr.com

Kevin serves a variety of multinational companies on general corporate matters; mergers & acquisitions; economic development; business organization; corporate governance; and labor and employment matters. Kevin's practice and experience also expand to business immigration including employment-based temporary and permanent visa categories. Before attending law school, Kevin worked for a multinational South Korean electronics company for six years. While there, he served on the human resources, strategic alliance, and mergers & acquisitions team. Kevin earned his J.D. from Emory University School of Law and his B.S. from Sungkyunkwan University. Prior to receiving his bachelor's degree, Kevin served as a Sergeant in the 3rd Corps Infantry Division of the Republic of Korea Army.

News

- Burr & Forman Expands Across Southeast with Addition of Five Attorneys
Firm News, 07.28.2022

Professional Activities

- Korea Southeast US Chamber of Commerce (SEUSKCC)
- Korean American Bar Association of Georgia (KABA-GA)
- American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA)
- International Association of Korean Lawyers (IAKL)

PARALEGAL/ASSISTANT

Legal Practice Assistant

Diane Steiger

(404) 685-4265

dsteiger@burr.com

CAPABILITIES

Mergers & Acquisitions

Corporate Law

Economic Development

Labor & Employment

Immigration

EDUCATION

J.D., Emory University School of Law

LL.B., Sungkyunkwan University

LICENSED IN

Georgia