Tracey is a Partner in the firm's Corporate & Tax Practice Group. Tracey maintains a diverse practice, helping his clients with a wide variety of issues. He assists clients on matters involving complex civil litigation in federal and state courts, including business and contract disputes; administrative matters, including tax and environmental permitting matters before the South Carolina Administrative Law Court; regulatory matters before the South Carolina Public Service Commission; and election and government law. Tracey is also a certified public accountant.

Prior to joining Burr & Forman, Tracey served as Chief Counsel to the South Carolina House of Representatives Judiciary Committee and as an Assistant Attorney General for the state of South Carolina, where he served in a variety of different roles, including as a prosecutor for the South Carolina State Grand Jury. Tracey also worked for one of the largest international accounting firms before attending law school.

Tracey received his J.D. from the University of South Carolina School of Law and his Master of Taxation and B.S. in Accounting from the University of South Carolina. Tracey also served as a law clerk for The Honorable William W. Wilkins Jr., Circuit Judge, United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit.
