Burr & Forman LLP is pleased to announce Partner, Bradley S. Wright has been named one of Columbia, South Carolina's 50 Most Influential by Columbia Business Monthly. The list honors the region's most influential people. The selection of 50 men and women is a result of staff research and community nominations.

Brad serves as the Columbia Office Managing Partner and focuses his legal practice on governmental and corporate matters. He represents clients with legislative and regulatory issues before the South Carolina General Assembly, the Office of the Governor and state agencies, and drafts legislation and amendments for consideration by the South Carolina General Assembly.

Prior to joining Burr, Brad served in several roles for the South Carolina House of Representatives, most recently as general counsel and chief of staff to the Office of the Speaker of the House. His experience also includes service as legal counsel to the Judicial Merit Selection Commission, the House Rules Committee, the Ways and Means Committee, and the House Labor, Commerce and Industry Committee.
